

School of Natural Resources

2009 Fall Seminar Schedule

All seminars are on Wednesdays at 3 p.m. in 107 Hardin Hall, except the seminar on November 12 and 19 (Thursday). The November 12 seminar is at 130 p.m. in 901 Hardin Hall; the November 19 seminar is scheduled for 330 p.m. in 901 Hardin Hall at 330 p.m.

- October 14 Alan Ewert, Professor and Endowed Chair, Department of Recreation, Park, and Tourism, Indiana University
- Seminar title: “Human Health, Quality of Life, and Natural Environments: What is the Connection?” (107 Hardin Hall, Auditorium, 3 p.m.)
- 28 Gene Takle, Professor of Agronomy and Director, Climate Science Initiative, Iowa State University
- Seminar Title: “Midwest Corn Production Under the Influence of Climate Change, Climate Variability, and Wind Turbines” (107 Hardin Hall, Auditorium, 3 p.m.)
- November 11 Julio Betancourt, Senior Scientist, U.S. Geological Survey, Tucson, Arizona
- Seminar title: “How Do Plants Actually Migrate? Lessons from the Holocene in the American West” (107 Hardin Hall, Auditorium, 3 p.m.)
- (Dr. Betancourt will also be giving a seminar updating progress on the development of the USA-National Phenology Network on Tuesday, November 10 in 901 Hardin Hall, at 330 p.m.)
- 12* Mike Hocella, University Distinguished Scientist, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, Blacksburg, Virginia.
- Seminar Title: “Environmental Nanogeoscience: What Nature Has Already Taught Us” (901 Hardin Hall, at 130 p.m.)
- 19* Stephen L. Egbert, Associate Research Scientist, Kansas Applied Remote Sensing Program and Associate Professor, Department of Geography, University of Kansas
- Seminar title: “Current Research Initiatives at the Kansas Applied Remote Sensing Program” (901 Hardin Hall, 3 p.m.)

* Thursday seminars